

Table of Contents

Editor's Note	V
Portraits of Herwig Verschueren	XI
Frederik SWENNEN Greetings from the Dean	XIX
Frank VANDENBROUCKE On the benefits of solidarity, national and European	XXI
PART I: THE LAY OF THE LAND: SOCIAL EUROPE FROM A BIRDS-EYE PERSPECTIVE
Stefano GIUBBONI Forms of crisis and models of solidarity in the European Union	3
Esther VAN ZIMMEREN A Reminder of the Importance of Solidarity for the European Union in Times of Polycrisis and a Call for its Revival	9
Gijsbert VONK Universal citizenship: an antidote to increasingly harsh social exclusions of wayfarer migrants?	19
Anne Pieter VAN DER MEI In the Court of Justice we Trust: OK, but Please not too Much	25
Yves JORENS Enforcement of European social law: where are we and where should we go to?	31
Zef EVEN and Amber ZWANENBURG Subsidiarity and social policy – a Dutch perspective	41
PART II: THE BLUEPRINT OF SOCIAL SECURITY COORDINATION AND BEYOND
Ger ESSERS European social security coordination 1992-2032: a helicopter view	53
Rob CORNELISSEN and Guido VAN LIMBERGHEN A plea for an adaptation of the conflict rules in the EU social security regulations	65
Simon ROBERTS 'Complication'? The Operation of the Withdrawal Agreement and the Trade and Cooperation Agreement Two Years On	77
Jean-Philippe LHERNOULD Does the fight against social fraud justify a threat to the right to a fair trial? Some thoughts on the INAIL & INPS v. Ryanair judgment	91

Bernhard SPIEGEL Social security coordination with third countries – who should do it – Member States or the EU?	99
Heidi SUORSA How EU citizenship came to be a stratified social membership, exemplified through planned cross-border healthcare	109
Marjon WEEREPAS The Relationship between Social Security and Taxation: Discordance or Coherence?	117
PART III: SOLIDARITY AS A COMPASS FOR SOCIAL EUROPE? EUROPEAN CITIZENS, FREE MOVEMENT AND EQUAL TREATMENT
Johan MEEUSEN Access to justice and equal treatment of mobile Union citizens in a ‘genuine area of justice’: a truly European objective	129
Gillian MORE Free Movement in the EU, ‘non-active’ citizens and access to healthcare: the story so far	141
Ferdinand WOLLENSCHLÄGER The Union Citizens’ Claim to Social Solidarity: Status Quo and Perspectives	151
Miriam QUENÉ Equal treatment and (family members of) Union citizens: how being economically active still matters	163
Frederic DE WISPELAERE Posting of workers: law in books versus law in action	171
Fieke VAN OVERBEEKE Private international law as an Achilles’ heel for equal treatment of employees in cross-border work – the case of labour in international road transport	183
PART IV: EXPLORING UNCHARTED TERRITORY: RECENT AND POTENTIAL INITIATIVES
Bartłomiej BEDNAROWICZ Policing the social dimension of the EU internal market: The mandate and role of the European Labour Authority	197
Frans PENNING The Directive on Adequate Minimum Wages in the EU: a New Stage in Developing EU Social Policy	207
Catherine JACQUESON Social Europe and the EU package protecting platform workers	217
Paul SCHOUKENS, Eleni DE BECKER and Danny PIETERS Towards a ‘European’ scheme for temporary unemployment for the self-employed?	227

Bea CANTILLON How to reinforce the implementation of the Council Recommendation on adequate minimum income?	241
Daniel DUMONT The Idea of a Universal Basic Income and the Free Movement of Persons: A Basic Income for the Benefit of Which European Citizens?	251
PART V: BEYOND THE FINAL FRONTIER: SOCIAL EUROPE'S EXTERNAL DIMENSION
Bruno DE PAUW and Lode VAN STEENKISTE Beyond the Frontier: The External Dimension of European Social Security Coordination	261
Kees GROENENDIJK The role of EU free movement law in the interpretation of directives on legal migration of third-country nationals by the Court of Justice	275
Pauline MELIN and Zvezda VANKOVA The Recast Proposals of the Single Permit and Long-Term Residence Directives – a step forward for the social security rights of third-country nationals?	287
Tesseltje DE LANGE Does EU labour migration law play a part in the protection of rights of highly skilled migrant workers in the Netherlands?	297
Dirk VANHEULE A right of mobility for persons granted international protection in the EU?	305
PART VI: RETURNING HOME: AN INCLUSIVE SOCIAL EUROPE?
Grega STRBAN Cross-border healthcare and reverse discrimination: an (un)solved issue?	317
LUC DENYS and Caroline PONSAERTS The legal status of family members of the static Belgian citizen in the Belgian Aliens Act	325
Paul MINDERHOUD The excessive consequences of the Dutch 'Linking principle'	335
Thalia KRUGER and Eric SOMERS Solidarity and equal access to higher education	343
Ane ARANGUIZ 6 years of the European Pillar of Social Rights, has it really changed the game?	349
Brief Curriculum Vitae Herwig Verschueren	359
Chronological List of Publications	361
List of Contributors	377
List of Subscribers	381

